Housing Costs:

There are many housing options for your stay at Mount Madonna Institute. Rooms are in hotel-style buildings (no phones or tv's in rooms). Some rooms include a private bathroom with shower. Others have access to nearby shared (but private while in use) bathrooms and showers. Cabins are located in a forest grove, and include electricity and heat, but not indoor plumbing. A separate shower house with private showers and restrooms is nearby. Campgrounds are located in secluded redwood groves and have running water, tents provided by the Institute, and tent sites for your own tent. These options, and their respective costs per person per day, including vegetarian meals and use of the hot tub, hiking trails, and other facilities, are as follows:

Commuting (meals & facilities use) $48
Own Tent or Vehicle $58
Institute's Tents* $65
Dormitory (4-7/room) $83
Triple Occupancy $92
Double Occupancy $103
Double with Bath $115
Single Occupancy $130
Single with Bath $153

*Available May – October
